A Division

Opens a Bit Lopsided and High Scoring

The A division opened with teams showing their offensive prowess. Ticket King took game one over Leff's Big Dogs by the score of 15-5. Seems the entire team was in on the scoring with multiple hat tricks and play makers being recorded. In another lopsided event, O'Connor's/Pete's Pizza Ghost Dogs crushed newly formed short benched MLX by a final of 13-3. Every player on the Ghost Dogs posted at least one point. In a closer match, Leonard Insurance edged out Liquid Johnny's by a score of 7-6. RJ Rick had a nice game picking up two goals combined with an assist to seal the deal.

B Division

B Division Sees Seasons First Overtime

Chancery Beer Barrons got their season started in a big way beating Spring League Champion Von Trier by a final score of 11-7. Tom Kubrican had the hot stick scoring two goals combined with two assists. Chris Hurley, Al Schumacher, and Ryan McQuade each had two goals and Mike Korrer was busy serving up the playmaker. The Sabercats came out of the gate growling to beat G Daddy's BBC by the score of 7-4. Billy Schicker recorded a hat trick along the way letting the new G Daddy's BBC know that wins don't come easy in the B division. Redhawks got off to a fine start picking up the win over McGillycuddys 5-4 in overtime. The game winner came early in the extra period with a nice shot by Mike Worgolet from a great feed by Chuck Smalley. The Lumberjacks are back and even with a short bench chopped down an already short Stubbys by a final of 8-3. Nick Lemmer caught fire posting four goals combined with an assist to lead his team to the victory.

Close Starts in C-1

PAHL Spring League Champion Dusters picked up right where they left off edging out S&B Undertakers in a close one 5-4. Fundamental puck movement allowed the margin of victory in this one seven different Dusters got in on the scoring. The Old Timers picked up an opening night win destroying the Fighting Sue by the score of 10-2. Kevin Wellhausen had a six point game including four goals and two assists. Paulie's Pub picked up the week one win taking down the Coyotes by the score of 6-4. Keith Dall recorded two goals while Dan Hintz and Matt Cottrell were busy serving up two assists each. The Big Dogs came out barking loud defeating the newly revamped SWIFT team in a shut out 3-0. Dave Free, Andy McFaul, and Dave Michaels accounted for the Big Dog goals.

C-2 Race Tight as Ever

Brass Monkey picked up the week one opener over Korbelly Blues by the score of 6-1. Gary Schaefer had a goal and two assists while Ted Oleson was busy picking up two goals of his own. The high flying Aviators soared back into PAHL action picking up overtime win over the mighty Warriors 4-3. The game winner came at the 1:04 mark of the extra period with a solo shot from Scott Abig to put this one in the books. Baker Pool returned to the PAHL edging out O'Donoghues by a score of 2-1. Lenny Delvecchio and Mike Stine scored the goals and Drew Bayer served up both assists. In another close affair the Blackbirds slipped by the Pirates 2-1. Anthony Gionti and John Beemster provided the goals while Aaron Sierra and Chris Houghton picked up the assists.
