

2011-12 PAHL Fall/Winter League Blog- Week 15

A Division

Short Drought for Leonard Ends

Leonard Insurance bounced back after two straight losses to defeat MLX by a final score of 7-2. Kevin Fetherston picked up two goals combined with two assists en route to the win. Ticket King continues its surge by taking down Liquid Johnny's by the score of 6-4. Rob May put on an offensive display combining for five points including a hat trick. Chmill Insurance is looking good climbing into the race by settling a claim with O'Connor's by a score of 7-3. Matt Waite had a nice game picking up four goals and two assists for a six point night.

B Division

G Daddy's BBC Continues their Dominance

G Daddy's BBC is looking to be unstoppable this time capturing a win over McGillicuddys by a final of 10-2. Collin Shorts picks up the hat trick while Jimmy Pappachristou was busy serving up four assists to seal the victory. Von Trier gets the win taming the Sabercats to the tune of 7-3. Adam Bastjan had the hot stick picking up two goals to put this one in the books. Stubbys meanwhile shot down the Redhawks in a close one 5-4. Peter Shutt led the scoring picking up a goal and an assist along the way. The Chancery Beer Barons showing improvement in the stretch run chopped down the Lumberjacks with a shutout victory 5-0. Ten different Beer Barons were involved in the scoring.

C-1 Division

Tight Race in C-1

The Coyotes were howling loud as they completely dominated the Fighting Sue with the final outcome of 16-3. Hat tricks were recorded by Dan Crivello and Zach Baugnet with many others accounting for multiple goals and assists. The Dusters got the win defeating the Big Dogs in a close one 7-5. Give the hat trick to Kurt Ihn in this one coupled with four assists from Jace Raumann. The S&B Undertakers buried the Old Timers easily winning the contest 9-3. Kevin Kline led all scorers lighting the lamp three times and adding two assists. Paulie's Pub slowed down the SWIFT group taking the win by a final of 4-1. Mike Barney led the way with two goals to seal the win.

C-2 Division

Blackbirds Pecking Their Way to the Top

The Blackbirds get a much needed win to keep pace for the division top spot grounding the first place Aviators by the score of 3-2. Aaron Siera picked up a goal and an assist to lead the charge. Brass Monkey picked up the win over Baker Pool by a final score of 5-3 to keep pace in the division. Kyle Sternig took charge in this one lighting the lamp four times en route to the win. The mighty Warriors picked up a much needed win over O'Donoghues by the score of 4-3. Adam Perz led the scoring with a goal and two assists to seal the deal in this one. Korbelly Blues let another one slip away as they had to settle for the 4-4 overtime tie against the last place Pirates. Don't find too much comfort in this as these Blues will prove to be a dangerous bunch come playoff time.

D Division

Hornets Continue to Sting Opponents

The Ink Theory Hornets still with only one loss on the season continue to dominate the schedule this time defeating Paulie's Ice Breakers by a final of 6-3. Ryan Lettuce picked up two goals and an assist to lead the swarm. THEM Puckers divided the Wolf Pack by the score of 5-3 to keep pace with the division leaders. Doug Dollhoph had a goal and an assist while Derek Fox kept busy serving up two fine assists. The Reapers continue to make things grim for their opponents, this time edging out the Predators by the final of 3-2. Five different players provided the scoring for the Reapers. Shooters Service got the win over the Screaming Eagles by the score of 9-6. John Thomsen had a nice game picking up the hat trick and adding an assist. St. Pats picked up a nice win defeating The Norse by the final of 6-1. Alec Mudek had a nice performance finding the back of the net two times while teammate Jason Hughes added a goal combined with an assist to get St. Pats to the Promised Land.