

2011-12 PAHL Fall/Winter League Blog- Week 9

A Division

7 in a Row Now for Leonard

Leonard Insurance in control of the A division top spot now at 7-0 beat O'Connor's by a score of 4-2. Jessie Jacobs provided the offense for Leonard picking up two goals in the victory. Liquid Johnny's lost a close one to rival Chmill Insurance by a final of 6-5. Jim Panther posted a hat trick for Chmill to lead all scorers. Ticket King picked up the forfeit win over MLX due to a lack of available players.

B Division

G Daddy's BBC Continues its Dominance in B

G Daddy's BBC continues its winning ways this time victimizing Stubbys by a score of 12-2. Jason Libka made scoring look easy as he piled in five goals to lead the way. The Saber Cats clawed their way to an overtime win over the Lumberjacks by a final of 2-1. The game winner came at the 1:39 mark of the extra period unassisted by Steve Cook. Von Trier looking solid as of late took it to McGillicuddys by a score of 12-3. Von Trier would see three of its players post hat tricks; Kyle Rasmussen, Tom Kaifish, and Jeff Turk get the credit. In the best game of the week, Red hawks and Chancery Beer Barons would see four periods but the result was a 3-3 tie adding one point to each team's total.

C-1 Division

Old Timers Clinging to the Top Spot

The Old Timers picked up another win in a tight battle over the Big Dogs 3-2. Kyle Veach, Mark Skorski, and Jim Lemerand each had a goal en route to the win. The Coyotes continue to howl this time burying the S&B Undertakers by the final of 7-3. Mild mannered Matt Turdo put on an offensive clinic posting four goals combined with two assists for a six point night. SWIFT took advantage of a struggling Fighting Sue tribe downing the Sue 8-4. Marc Pelchat got hot in this one picking up a goal and three assists to help SWIFT capture the win. The Dusters get a much needed win over Paulie's Pub 7-1. Steve Sarauer posted two Duster goals to help cap this one.

C-2 Division

O'Donaghues in Control

O'Donaghues continues to improve as they pick up the win over the Blackbirds by a final of 5-2. Jeff Duenig led the scoring posting a goal combined with two assists to lead the way. Brass Monkey shut out the mighty Warriors by the score of 6-0. Sam Schaefer had the hot stick for the Monkeys picking up two goals and an assist. The high flying Aviators continue to soar, this time taking down Korbelly Blues in a close one 5-4. The Blues continue to struggle in close games with only a minus five goal differential across eight games. The Pirates continue to get better but lose a heart breaker to Baker Pool in overtime, 2-1 The Pirates tied the game at one midway through the third and held off Baker to send this one to the extra period. The teams traded shots in the fourth but with 3:51 left, Drew Boyer sent a nice pass to Lenny Delvecchio who would find the back of the Pirate net to seal the victory.

D Division

Ink Theory Hornets Continue to Sting Opponents

The Ink Theory Hornets pick up another win this time Shooters Service would feel the sting, 7-1. Ryan Lettuce led the swarm picking up two goals and adding an assist en route to the win. The Wolf Pack continues to hunt down opponents in the D division as they had the Eagles Screamin resulting in a 7-0 shutout victory. In another shutout win, THEM Puckers added to the Hangovers headache defeating Hangovers 4-0. Jeff Grosskopf recorded the hat trick while Josh Friedl was busy picking up two assists. The Norse picked up a nice win over the Predators by a final of 3-2. Tom Behnke insured the win for The Norse picking up two key goals to seal the deal. ST. Pats got a rare win by defeating the Reapers by the score of 3-2. After trailing 2-0 heading to the third period St Pats fired in three unanswered goals to edge out the Reapers. Charlie Hanson accounted for two of the St. Pats goals.